

Conditions for scope extension

Upon receipt of request from the certified organization for extension of scope of a certification already granted, TQ SERVICES reviews and determines any audits required to decide whether or not the extension can be granted .If possible, this may be in conjunction with surveillance audits or a special audit may need to be carried out.