

Conditions for scope reduction

Certification scope may be reduced under any of the following conditions provided it does not affect the ability of organization to provide conforming product to customer

- To exclude the parts not meeting the requirements
- When the Organization has persistently or seriously failed to meet certification requirements for those parts of the scope of certification.